CORDOVA (Alaska) July 10. (P)-CORDOVA (Alaska) July 10. (P)—
The Red Dragon Little Theater of Cordova is the "farthest north" little theater in America, if not the world.
Performances of John Kendrick Bangs's "A Proposal Under Difficulties" and August Strindberg's "The Stronger Woman" have been given successfully to an audience of 125persons, many of whom saw for the first time in their lives a dramatic production of the speaking stage.
The program was presented on two

The little theater project made such an impression locally that already, while casts are at work preparing the plays, there is talk of having the company present a program at Valdez, a "neighboring" community in Southwestern Alsaks, reached by a day's steamer travel.

The Alaskan little theater project is a development in the progress of a winter class in the appreciation of modern drama, a course which was Another Romance of Cinemaland was culminated Saturday with the marriage of Lols Boyd, screen comedienne, and Lou Erickson, former University of California student and present director of the orchestra at Brandstatter's Montmartre Cafe. Newlyweds above.

The Nervy Ensign and the $500,000 Rum Ship He Captured Lone-Handed in a Spectacular of Liberty in New York Harbor, the 4th inst., are pictured above. The ensign is Charles J. D. ed States Coast Guard; the rum-runner is the British steamer Economy, aboard which is alcohol was found. Ensign Duke boarded the Economy in a choppy sea and forced a court surrender. (P. & A. photos.)

Its Habitat is so Far Beneath Surface of ocean that the freak sea monster, the elephant head fish, explodes when brought up from the deep. The 600-pound specimen shown above was captured last week by fishermen 400 miles off the Farallon Islands. (P. & A. photo.)

Looks Like an Earthquake Hit This Hotel at Arlington, Or. As a matter of fact, however, a cloud-burst which sent a seven-foot wall of water rushing through the little Eastern Oregon village is responsible. No lives were lost, the residents having been warned in advance. (P. & A. photo.)

FRIDAY NITE

Jobs Hunt Men Every Day Through

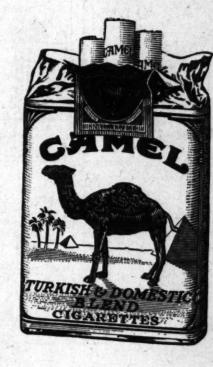

WHEN it comes to best sellers, Camel leads them all, because by the greatest number of smokers it is considered the best cigarette.

The closer the search for quality, the greater the preference for Camels. For Camel, made of the choicest Turkish and Domestic tobaccos, is supremely blended to a mellowness, mildness and individuality of taste that is beyond matching or imitation.

If you don't yet know its satisfying smoothness, just try this overwhelming favorite among cigarettes.

OIL FIELD TESTS GOOD

Bearing Sand Located at Depth of 1820 Feet and Company Shuts in Well

ARTESIA (N. M.) July 10. (Exclu nive)—The prospect for obtaining commercial production west of the ecos River in Eddy county, New Mexico, was strengthened this week sand in the Midwest and Terry No. 1 test on Sec. 15, 18-26, at a depth of 1820 feet. The well is shut in await-ing further orders from officials of the company.

In the southeastern section the Getty test on Sec. 14, 20-29, continues to look favorable. Additional gas was encountered in the well during the week at 1140 feet. Operators expect to pick up the sand found in the Wells hole, which is located to the southeast, at a depth of 1400 feet. Drilling is now under way below 1350 feet.

Operation is scheduled for Friday. It is appreciated that selective flotation still is far from perfect in handling coppersinc-lead ores, though a remarkable degree of success has attended operation of several of the Arizona plants. BALTIC MINE eration of several of the Arizona piants.

A new mill is being planned by the Arizona Lead Company, operating the famous Tennessee and Schuylkill mines at Chloride, with expectation of clean separation of the sinc from the lead, allowing full stoping of many ore bodies that heretofore have had to be left in place.

Several lenses rich in zinc now may be mined with profit, though below the grade necessary for shipment in former days. There has been trouble through caving, that necessitated retimbering of the old Schuylkill shaft. The Tennessee shaft has been equipped with a large electric hoist and a connection with the Schuylkill is to be completed on the 900-foot level.

Longan Returns to Decide on Future Operation

International Completes One of Its Campaigns

> TAMPICO, July 10. (Exclusive) The worst floods in the history of The worst floods in the history of the Mexican oil fields practically put an end to operations last week, not a single completion being reported. In six days 18.85 inches of rain fell, undermining and carrying away camp buildings and making such a torrent of the Panuco River that tugs, barges and even wharves were carried out to see.

of the Fanuoo River that the company and even wharves were carried out to sea.

W. C. Longan, manager of the International Petroleum Company has returned from Los Angeles to decide the future drilling plans of his company. International has just completed a six-month campaign in the Fanuoo field which was successful though not at all sensational. There were a considerable number of dry holes and noncommercial producers, but the company increased its dairy production more than 60,000 barrels. The International, owned by the John Hays Hammond interests, always has been one of the most enterprising developers of new fields in Mexico, being the first to go into the great Toteco field. The Toteco field has produced something like $100,-000,000 worth of oil for International and the Mexican Gulf, the two companies

Mine Will Use Tunnel Water for Irrigation

RENO (Nev.) July 10. (Exclusive The Seven Troughs Reorganized Mines Company, operating in the Mines Company; operating in the Seven Troughs gold district near Lovelock, has arranged for irrigation of large areas of fertile land with water from its deep workings. The long drainage tunnel recently tapped a heavy flow of water, and is expected to strike a small underground river when the Coalition vein system is reached at an approximate depth of 1800 feet. The company is perfecting titles to its water rights for mining, milling and agricultural purposes, and plans to raise large crops of alfalfa.

The long tunnel has cut strong veins, but it is not expected to enter the main ore belt until near the end of the year The lateral will be over 3000 feet long and will also open ore bodies in the old Mazuma Hills group. The old Coalition workings produced over $5,000,000 in gold before water forced suspension of activities. The company is controlled by M. J. Monnette and other Southern California capitalists.

the oil business, viewing it in a worldwide way.

His book embraces fifteen interesting chapters, beginning with foreign supply and its entangling relations, and closing with a chapter on miscellaneous information concerning petroleum.

The keynote of the volume is conservation of capital. The author deplores the vast amount of moneyeliso,000,000 in five years, he sayswasted in fruitless search for oil.

The tragedies of oil include the revelations of the La Brea tar pit within the city limits of Los Angeles, where many prehistoric animals lost their life in ponds of seepage.
Another great tragedy which he thinks is a possibility would be a motoriess America 100 years hence, as a result of oil field depletion.

Mr. Reinholt writes with an intimate touch concerning oil supply in all parts of the world. He knows the industry in all its phases, and is able to look at it from the inside as well as from the outside, a fact which makes his book decidedly readable.

Mr. Reinholt is now in Philadelphia.

Test in Hitherto Undeveloped Area Shows Strong Yield of Motor Fuel in Blow Off

A test of the gas in the Smith Petroleum Con 1 well, which was put on the pump two weeks ago, shows that the well is producing 48,000 cubic feet of gas per day through the casing. The gaso-line content of the gas is said to be 1.9 gallons per 1000 cubic feet. The gas tubing has not been gauged but preparations are being made to install a gas trap next week.

Owing to the fact that the well had to be shut down a number of times each day last week, while machinery was being removed for the new well to be drilled 2000 feet southeast of the discovery well, an accurate gauge of the daily output of the well could not be made, but it is believed to be doing about 125 barrels a day. Thicker Than Water

By RALPH HENRY BARBOUR old GEORGE RANDOLPH OSBORNE

"Say, Doc, how soon do I croak?"

"Sag, Doc. how seen de I creak?"

The boy drew in his breath and paled visibly.

The convay: "Sorry, Harry, but you'll have to go on without me, "regide the Visitor. The early and can wait."

"There's still an hour," replied the Visitor. The early and can wait."

"The come in with me." Markham followed to the operating room, white-wailed, immaculate, odorous of stale ether and antiseptics. On the table lay the sheeted form of a young girl. Only the upper portion of the body visible, and about the neck wet. "red-stained bandages were bound." A queer case," said the surgeon.

"Brought here from a sweat-shop two hours ago. A stove-pipe fell and ashed an artery in her neck. She's bleeding to desth. Blood's supposed to be thicker than water, but here ian't, poor girl. If it would clot she might pull through. Or I could seve her by trankrulson, but we can't find any relatives, and there's mighty little time."

The attending nurse entered. "The patient's brother is here," she announced, 'and is asking to see her."

"Her brother!" The surgeon's face lighted. "What's he like?"

"About twenty, doctor: fooks strong and healthy."

"See him, nurse. Tell him the tacts Say his sister will die unless he'll give some blood to her. Or wait!" He turned to Markham. "Harry, you do it! Persuasion's your line. Make believe he's a jury. But put it strong old man! And hurryl Every minute counts!"

The boy was standing stolidly in the waiting-coem, only the pallor of his healthy akin and the ankiety of his Damages totaling $61,000 are demanded in a suit filed Saturday in Superior Court by Morris Mandel downtown shoe merchant, against the Progressive Finance Corporation and five of its officers and directors. The suit contends that the finance company charged Mandel interest exceeding 40 per cent on a $16,000 loan obtained a year ago.

Defendants named in the complaint are Arthur I. Katz. Joseph S. Mertz, Max Slossburg, Albert Lane and David Horowitz. Mandel in his complaint asserted that he paid $4460 interest for ten months. In addition, it was stated that the finance company demanded as security a vatuable downtown lease which yielded an additional $850 monthly.

That the rate of interest was a violation of the California usury laws and the defendants liable to prosecution on those grounds, was pointed out in the complaint. Attorneys Knight and Reynolds are representing Mandel in the suit.

Long-Lost Suit Found and Ordered From Calendar; Plaintiff Gets Costs Back

That the mills of justice grind allowly has been given additional confirmation as the result of the disposition of a suit originated eighteen years ago when Supe-rior Judge Albert Lee Stephens, was Justice of Peace Stephens, was Justice of Peace Stephens, was Justice of Peace Stephens.

When the action was started in 1900, Judgment in the matter was of great importance to Pierre Agoure, defendant, and B. Vesen, plaintiff who sought to recover "one trimmed stag bull, 5 years of age, and with a white face" or its value of $35.

The question of legal ownership of the animal was argued before Justice of Peace Stephens by Superior Judge Burnell and Municipal Judge Hass, both practicing atterneys then, appearing for the plaintiff. They contended the bull had been stollen from Vesen and besides return of the bull or its value, they saked $25 damages.

Justice Stephens gave Judgment for the defendant and an appeal was taken, Vesen posting $115 appeal bond and defense counsel asked ecour costs amounting to $78.

HUET IN SMASH

Pour persons were injured in a collision between two large cars at the intersection of Lankershim Bouleward and Shattuck street.

One of the machines that police say was driven by Santiago Marques of Lankershim, collided with a cerdriven by George G. Ward, of 141 North Stafford street, Humington Park. Marques, according to police reports, failed to make a bouleward stop. Those who were injured were cocupants of Mr. Ward's car. They were Mrs. Ward and Mrs. Pauline Shaffer, of the same address, Mrs. M. M. Foster, of Woodland and Mrs. Mail of the injured were taken to the Emergency Hospital at Van Nuys. Mrs. Ward was said to have received internal injuries and a possible skuli fracture. The others received minor cuts and bruises.

Two accidents in which five people were injured occurred at the intersection of Euclid avenue and H street, Ontario, in the last twenty-four hours. The first was a collision between the cars of F. V. Whitney of 238 West H street and Esteven Montes of Alta Loms. Mrs. Whitney, who was riding with her husband, was pinned beneath the wreckage. Both husband and wife were taken to the San Antonio Hospital for treatment. The other smash at the same point happened between the cars driven by William Webber of 535 East F street and Marlon Brown of 188 Pirst avenue, Upland. In Brown's machine were Miss Ruby Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Roberts, all of whom were injured and taken to the San Antonio Hospital.

In a collision between an automobile driven by Donaid Hall, 21, 2002 Sunset Boulevard, and one driven by Clayton F. Pickup, 25, Whittier, Hall received a possible skull fracture and concussion of the brain, but Fickup was caly slightly hurt. He was arrested on a Hugor-law violation charge by Detective Lieutenants Stoll and Steed when they said they found ilquor in his car. The erash occurred at Venice Boulevard and Wilton Place.

Row Expected to Start With Opening of Bids

Rejection of All Proposals Will Be Demanded

Zero hour for the world's greatest project of its kind, the $25,000,000 flood control and water conservation dam proposed for the forks, San Gabriel Canyon, is 2 p.m. today when bids from construction contractors of various parts of the United States will be opened by the Board of Supervisors. At the same time, representatives of Long Beach, Whittier, Compton, Signal Whittier, Compton, Signal Hill, the San Gabriel Valley Protective Association and others will urge the board to reject all bids and make a new start on another dam program than that which the board has than that which the board has laid out. A legal battle is threatened.

The protestants, headed principally by City Manager Callahan of Long Beach and City Engineer Bowen of Whittier, are asserting that the heard has no legal right to proceed on a program that is radically different from the one indorsed by voters and for which they voted bonds. Apart from that they are asserting that the board should go back to the Reagan plan, indersed by the electorate, and in support of it are to lay before the board a private report made to the cities by F. Playground and recreation centers of the city are looking forward to one of the most ambitious and busy years in their history, according to the budget report issued by the Department of Playground and Recreation.

Forty-one playground and recreation of the new bureau will be to active with parents on the proper facilities and methods to be used in the thirty-one centers in use. The new budget provides for forty-eight centers to be used all or part time throughout the year.

NEW ONES FLANNED

The new ones provided for in the budget include: Verdugo, Apablasa, Whittier, Terminal Island and Harvard playgrounds; Griffith Park awimming pool and Cabrillo boathouse at San Pedro.

The total cost estimated for operation and maintenance is figured at $800,423. The gross available revenues are estimated to be $828,313. It is hoped to complete the current fiscal year with an unappropriated balance of $49,800, the report states. One of the new and interesting features to be introduced during the cuming year in the playground work, according to Charles Lamb, secretary to the commission, will be a bureau of home play. Stoneman Does Not Call Meeting on Ouster

Meeting on Ouster

The repeatedly rumored attempt to unionize city employees is an issue involved in a condict that has split the city Civil Service Commission. It is disclosed in statements made by Commissioner Stoneman and another commissioner whose name is withheld by request.

The fight, which has been waged quietly for several weeks, was brought to light by the determination of Commissioners Schreder Workman and Fryman to reach a decision last week on certain reports and recommendations on which the continuance in office of Ciliford N. Amsden as general manager of the Civil Service Department is said to depend. Cognizant of the fact that Amsden's probationary period would end yesterday, last Tuesday these three commissioners in the absence of the others at the weekly meeting, voted to held a special meeting and take final action during the latter part of the week. The controversy was further forced into the open when President Stoneman of the commission deldes after a hearing that they are true.

employee, to two years' imprisonment.

Wilson, brought before Judge Biake on a county charge, pleaded guilty to failing to provide for the care of his two children, Clarence, Jr., 4 years of age, and Oulda, 3., for the last three years. Dep. Dist-Atty.
Florence Woodhead charged that he had deliberately refused such domestic responsibilities, although he had been haled into Superior Court three times on similar charges.

"This is a most flagrant case," said Judge Blake, "and as long as you are of no assistance to your family as a free man, I'll put you where you will at least be of service to the county." He imposed a two-year sentence, the first six months to be served at hard labor. The remainder of the sentence will then be suspended providing the man pays $10 a week for care of his children.

The case against Wilson was brought in Municipal Court as a resuit of a recent Supreme Court ruling. In the past such cases have been heard before Superior Courts.

Pontiac Six sales are now at recordbreaking heights. No other low-priced quality six ever enjoyed such popularity—and no other car ever deserved its popularity more! For the New and Finer Pontiac Six is exactly the car that hundreds of thousands had hoped some day would be available!

The highest type of six-cylinder per-formance—smooth, supple, econom-ical and staunch—(you can drive all day at 50 miles an hour!)

The finest type of bodies known to the industry—new bodies by Fisher, gracefully proportioned, soundly built with wide, deep seats and lustrous Duco finishes!

The most desirable mechanical features—tilting-beam headlights with foot control, VV windshield, rotary window regulators—and a full pres-sure oiling system that forces through the engine 250 gallons of oil an hour at 35 m.p.h.!

And new low prices Sedan, Coupe and Roadster, for example, only $775—the lowest prices ever placed on sixes of comparable size, performance and quality!

Small wonder that Pontiac Six popularity is sweeping the nation with wildfire speed! Small wonder that thousands of people are buying new Pontiac Sixes every week!

Based on a recent report of the British government office the statement is made that England and Wales now make up the most densely populated country in the world. The present effort to establish the Angeles through the affiliation of large numbers of film actors and actresses with the Actors' Equity Association is one fraught with danger to the industry, to the public and, most of all, to the players themselves.

There is no quarrel with the right of any group of workers to band together for mutual benefit, where such an organization Actors' Equity Association, or actors' union s it actually is, was originally conceived as means for promoting the legitimate in-erests of the profession, for elevating the tone of the stage through making more rigid the requirements upon those appear-ing upon it and for caring for the unfortunate in its ranks. In these and similar activities no one disputes that it has done

Latterly, however, the Equity has taken on many of the objectionable aspects which characterize other branches of the American Federation of Labor. It has identifled itself with the principle of the closed shop, a principle opposed to the tenets of Americanism and of industrial liberty and only the theatrical profession, but the theatrical industry as well, dictate to employees who shall and shall not work and where and when and how, and to employers how they shall run the businesses they own and which their capital make

And now the Equity proposes to extend its power to the hitherto-free motion-picture industry, the largest in Los Angeles, a city builded and grown great in population, wealth and industry on the corner-stone of the open shop. Its first move is marked by veiled hints of a strike on the big lots if its demands are not recognized.

For a long time leading film players kept aloof from the Equity, with good reason and good sense. If, out of pique at the retrenchment program recently announced by producers, the players suddenly are rushing.

All of the flyers who have flown from the west to the east have taken the route by the way of Newfoundland, either direct to Europe or by way of the Azores and thence to Portugal. But in every case these flyers have been delayed by or met with stormy weather conditions, which in some cases have brought disaster.

It is generally acknowledged, and even stressed by Commander Byrd, that until there is a more practical knowledge of meteorological conditions, as well as appreciation of the effect of ocean currents upon aviation stations anchored in the ocean, the position these stations should occupy is problematical. In view, however, of the known weather conditions in the North Atlantic, together with the fact of the great depth of the North Atlantic together with the fact of the great depth of the North Atlantic basin for most of the distance between Newfoundland and Ireland, it seems practically certain that this northern route will have to be eliminated from any plan to establish ocean flying stations in the north.

But there is an alternative plan which I always scheme that his that fair due to the great depth of the North Atlantic basin for most of the distance between Newfoundland and Ireland, it seems practically certain that this northern route will have to be eliminated from any plan to establish ocean flying stations in the north.

But there is an alternative plan which is now being considered by scientists in this country. It is the study of conditions which may well prove to be an all-year route across the ocean which, although making for a total of more miles to be flown, is in a comparatively calm zone and already provides two lands and selengal to the course of many will be helpd in a practical way by the weather conditions which the establishment of ocean stations would be helpd in a practical way by the weather conditions which the search of the course of many control of the course of the c

This plan would undoubtedly be known as the "Southern Route." It would be by way of Bermuda, stations in the Sargasso Sea, thence to the Asores, whence the hop to Portugal has heretofore been made a number of times and presents no special problem, other than a plentiful supply of gasoline. From New York to Hamilton, Bermuda Islands, is 690 nautical miles. This "hop" should not be a difficult one, considering that knowledge of weather conditions between these two points is as a rule available at all times to flyers going either east or west.

Bermuda lies in the northwest fringe of the Sargasso Sea, which extends toward the east for over 1200 miles, an ideal place for stations.

It is suggested that at least two, possibly three, complete flying stations could be established within this radius of 1200 miles east of Bermuda. A man is known by the company because as the first sentence fogs, so often met with in the climination of dense fogs, so often met with in the sould converse to Portugal. But there has never been any trouble there has never been any trouble insking this "hop" herestofore and experienced aviators would probably worry very little over flying this distance, approximately 1200 miles, or a little more than from leastery weather conditions over this "Southern Route" would undoubtedly cause less delay in a regular schedule of flying than over this "Southern Route" would undoubtedly cause less delay in a regular schedule of flying than over this "Southern Route" would undoubtedly cause less delay in a regular schedule of flying than over this "Southern Route" would undoubtedly cause less delay in a regular schedule of flying than over this "Southern Route" would undoubtedly cause less delay in a regular schedule of flying than over any other trans-Atlantic routs, while the elimination of dense fogs, so often met with in the substance of the substance of the Azores to Portugal. But there has never been any trouble there has never been any trouble from the Azores to Portugal. But there has never been any trouble from the Azores to Portugal. But there has never been any trouble from the Azores while the elimination of dense fogs, so often met with in the North Atlantic, would compensate for the greater number of miles it would be recessary to fly.

Some day this route will be utilized for heavier-than-air machines, with stop-over privileges at Bermuda and the Azores.

LITERARY VALUES

In the London correspondence of the Manchester Guardian is printed a story about Dean Ince, which is not verified or even vouched for, but which has in itself a certain plausibility. It appears that an American publisher is anxious to add the Gloomy Dean to his list of popular authors. Accordingly he cabled: "Will you write your life? Offer £2000."

Whether the dean was flattered or not, he replied, rejecting the proposal. He cabled that under no circumstances would he write his auto-biography.

A little thing like that did not deter the enterprising American publisher. He sent to the dean another cable: "Will you write the life of Christ? Lower terms, of course."

Such an implied standard of comparison must have brought a certific Such an implied standard of com-parison must have brought a smil-evan to the cheek of the Gloom One. But he declined the secon-offer as he had the first. Obviously the story will not be complete unit the American publisher has been identified and his phrenological de-velopment has been examined after the manner of Grandard Parison.

BIDS TO BE OPENED ON WIDENING

Action Due Tomorrow on Long Beach Avenue Improvement Project

Bids will be opened tomorrow by the Board of Public Works as the final step toward the construction of a project which was initiated sixteen years ago. This is the widening and paving of Long Beach avenue from washington street to Slauson avenue. Property owners sought this widening first in 1911, but owing to court delays and inability to satisfy conflicting interests the city did not, until recently, acquire title to the property.

the Pacific Electric. A heavy eightinch permanent pavement will be installed.

Completion of this pavement will greatly facilitate traffic, as there is now no through highway between Alameda street and Central avenue.
The Board of Public Works also will open bids for a major traffic street plan project. This is the paving of the west side of Vermont avenue, from Manchester to Eighty-eighth street. Bth projects fit in with the Traffic Commission plan for the relief of traffic congestion.

Attorney Asks Fine for Self; Court Obliges

"You're the first attorney I have ever heard ask the court to impose a fine on him, and to show my ap-preciation, I am going to grant your request," spoke Municipal Judge Val-entine as he imposed a fine of $5 on Atty. Henry C. Buntington after the latter had pleaded guilty to a parking violation.

the latter had pleaded guilty to a parking violation.

The occasion marked the second-time Atty. Huntington had appeared before Judge Valentine as a defendant in as many days. The first time the court had suspended a fine on a speeding charge after the defendant-attorney had spoken with pride of a clear record, unmarred by traffic clashes with the law.

"My record lent so good now," remarked Atty. Huntington as he came before the court, "There's a warrant out for me on this parking charge and I wish to plead guilty and pay the customary fine."

SPANISH MUSIC TOPIC OF CAMPUS LECTURE

Charles Emil Kany of the University of California will give a lecture-recital on "A Musical Journey Through Spain" at the university summer session today at 2 p.m. The lecture is free to the public. The program will consist of popular old Spanish folk songs taken from the various provinces of Spain. Old Castile will be represented, as well as Andalusis, the Basque provinces and Aragon by work songs, street songs, soldier songs will be accompanied by plano and guitar.

bers of the original New York company will take part in the local production. They are May McCabe, for whom the author especially wrote in the role of Peggy Burton; Howard Hull Gibson, the original radio man; Charles Dow Clark, whose part of Splevin was one of the outstanding characters of Broadway last season, and Al Ochs, the seven-foot-tall "Big Boy."

Gay Seabrook and Phil Tead will take the leading roles. Both have played these parts before and their success with them was the chief reason for their selection by the Hollywood Playhouse to repeat.

Craufurd Kent was splendid as Lord John Lonadale, endowing his characterization with delicacy and serene restraint. Nannette Vallon as Arabella gave an outstanding performance, while Mario Carillo as the Count de Santa Rosa was altogether delightfull. Ole M. Ness handled the difficult, raucous, swashbuckling role of Angelo, the lion tamer, with considerable akill. The part was originally intended for Sheldon Lewis and Mr. Ness, one of the directors of the presentation, undertook it at short notice. Other members of the cast included Roberto Fantoni, Leo Greenwald, Alice Hicks, Russ Dudley and Mark Stroude.

HOPKINS TO USE DATE FIXED OLD TAX LAW FOR BIDS ON

Assessor Will Ignore Act of Last Legislature

Intorgible Credits Measure Held Unconstitutional

Stand Follows Opinion of County Counsel

The various phases of the law and its effect upon the voluntary returns for taxation of such property are being gone into thoroughly by Frark J. McDevitt. stock and bond deputy, upon instructions of Mr. Hookins. It was sointed out by Mr. Hookins and the County Counsel that the Legislature in passing the latest amendment, failed to live up to the mandate of the constitutional provision regarding taxation. It was also stated that a mere legislative act could not abrogate a constitutions, provision or mandate.

It was stated by County Assessor Hopkins that the assessments on stocks and bonds and other solvent credits will not be such that any taxpayer need fear a high rate in Los Angeles county in fact, this assessment will be upon an equitable basis, which will be that of the first of the Basing his action on the opinion of the County Council that the Assembly Bill No. 1265, passed in Aprilibat, is unconstitutional and void and places an unfair burden on residents from other Bistes as to their solvent intangible credits, stocks and bonds, County Assessor Hopkins intends to follow the mandate of the so-called "seven per cent" law in fixing his assessments for taxation in 1928.

This was indicated after receipt of the opinion of the County Counsel, who pointed out that the new law violates a constitutional provision, which declares that taxes must be apportioned between the county.

WILL USE OLD LAW

Doubt was expressed that Gov Young would call a special session of the Legislature to rectify what is termed a serious error in the passare of the latest tax law. Because of this and the fact that the County Counsel and many lawyers have declared the law void. County Assessor Hopkins will base his assessments on the "seven per cent" law, thus giving the taxpayer on intangible property a better chance to invest in California and to move such property here as well as to move here themselves. It was estimated that fully $500,000,000 more valuation on intangible property was declared during the effectiveness of the "seven per cent" law, which Mr. Hopkins was largely instrumental in having passed.

It was stated definitely at the County Assessor's office that no $5-county Assessor's office that no $5-count
